

CompTIA code redemption instructions:

Redeeming your Curriculum/Lab access key:

1. Go to <https://login.comptia.org/#redeemAccessKeys>.
2. Log into your existing CompTIA account or create a new account.
3. If you already have a CompTIA account, just use your email address and password to sign in.
NOTE: CompTIA recently migrated to single sign-on (SSO), so please use the Reset Your Password option if you haven't logged in through this page previously to create your new SSO password.
4. If you don't already have a CompTIA account, click the Sign Up Now button and follow the steps to validate your email address and create a new account.
5. Enter your access key and click Redeem Now.
6. Click Access My New Training to go directly to your new product or click View All My Products to see a full list of all your training products.

Once you have redeemed your code:

Go to <https://login.comptia.org/training-products>
